News and Happenings of The Gooseberry Park Players

The week of June 11, 2007 • HOOD: The Musical The New Legend of Robin Hood

Welcome to the First Issue of The Revue!

In an attempt to keep everyone informed about what is happening during our time with HOOD, you will receive this e-newsletter, The Revue, every week (hopefully!). If you have anything you would like to contribute, or any questions you need an answer to, please feel free to e-mail them to Laurie Neill at laurieneill2@yahoo.com.

Remember, Every Tuesday is Ticket Tuesday!

Everyone should have been handed a packet of tickets with instructions on The Walk Through Sherwood Forrest. The box office is open, so go on out and start those sales! Summer schedules fill up fast, so the earlier the better. Each family is expected to sell at least 25 tickets, but don't stop there. Amy Arness will be announcing awards for those who sell the most tickets.

Every Tuesday is considered "Ticket Tuesday," meaning if any tickets have been sold, bring in your green sheet with the buyer name, phone, etc., and give it to the box office at the beginning of rehearsal. Confirmation numbers will be put on your form and it will be returned to you at the end of rehearsal that same day.

Even if your buyer is unsure of the date they want to attend, they can still buy now. Just have them call and inform the box office when they do decide on a date and they will then receive a confirmation number.

No ticket is valid without a confirmation number. If you have any questions regarding tickets, contact Amy at 701-232-2825 or Amyarness@hotmail.com.

Don't Forget to Distribute Those Posters!

Some of you signed up for specific routes, but if you didn't, you can still help us get the word out. How about hanging a poster at work? at church? at your gym? on your neighbor's garage (okay, maybe not...) If you would like some posters, contact Laurie Neill at 218-287-1997 or laurieneill2@yahoo.com.

Don't be Quiet About the Silent Auction!

We encourage you to consider donating items and services for the Silent Auction, which will be held in the theater lobby during the run of the show. During the past few years, the auction has included "big ticket" items such as an orthodontics package and a certificate for 50% off lasik surgery. While we solicit such items from area businesses and organizations, we also rely on your donations for the success of the auction.

If you own or work for a business that could provide goods or services for the auction, please consider donating or approaching your employer. We also encourage families to consider putting together a themed basket or package for the auction.

If you would like to donate items, contact Gary Totten (233-8591; gtotten@hotmail.com) or Caryn Hewitt (293-6811; caryn.hewitt@meritcare.com). Items also can be dropped off at the theater box office. Place items in the blue tote and record your contact information and the item's value. We will be picking up items from the tote several times a week.

Thanks for your support!

A Friendly Reminder...

To log in your volunteer hours in the handy-dandy binder Karen Frost so skillfully prepared. It can be found on a table in the lobby.

We Appreciate and Need Sponsorship Donations

"Thanks" to those who have brought in a sponsorship donation! These donations are critical to the success of the show and are very much appreciated. Complimentary tickets accompany many of the donation categories and will be sent out as soon as we receive your donation.
